

TEACHERS' CLUB

INSTRUCTORS IN CITY SCHOOLS ENTERTAIN WITH "CHILDREN'S PARTY"

On Friday evening, the 13th, members of the Glendale City Teachers' Club were both uniquely and delightfully entertained by those on their social committee at the Colorado Boulevard School.

Everyone present represented a child in both make-up and spirit. Miss Saxton and Miss Edwards appeared in "playing lady" garb, with trains and much finery "borrowed" from "mother." Others with wonderful hair ribbons, fluffy ruffles and sashes behaved and misbehaved. There was the pinkest of a pinky Buster Brown suit with socks accompaniment.

Toy balloons, horns, walking dogs, moving trains (Express), dolls and Teddy-bears in arms—all there with chewing gum, punch and ice-cream cones were quite in keeping with nursery rhyme decorations and kindergarten chairs. Many recitations, some songs and stunts were put on by the "kiddies" and for the "kiddies." Perhaps one of the most entertaining features of the evening was the hole in Topsy's white stocking. Topsy is much better known as Mrs. Mandis of the Broadway School.

Miss Waite and Miss Cornwell of the Social Committee are to be especially congratulated upon the success of the evening.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Richardson D. White, Miss Waite, Miss Sparks, Miss Chase, Miss Mosher, Mrs. Robinson, Miss Ross, little kindergarten teacher at Colorado boulevard, Mr. Harwood, Miss Douglas, Miss Small, Miss Ball, Miss Cornwell, Miss Saxton, Mrs. Stone, Miss Circle, Mrs. Longley, Miss Corey, Mrs. Ryan, Miss Spyeke, Miss Sinclair, Mrs. Mandis, Miss Holloway, Mrs. Salisbury, Miss Hatch, Miss Land, Miss Collins, Miss Mitchell, Miss Church, Miss Tyler, Miss Pauley, Miss McIntyre, Miss Edwards, Miss Midcalf, Miss Jackson, Miss Wooldridge and Miss White.

A HAPPY OCCASION

Once a year the members of Central Christian Church, under the leadership of the Ladies' Aid, make a pilgrimage to the Old People's Home at Long Beach, with autos laden with provisions enough to keep the inmates in comfort for at least a week. This has been done for several years and always much more than a week's supply has been taken. Already the ladies are gathering up supplies, as the date given out was Tuesday, June 17th, but it has been found necessary to postpone the trip one week. The Glendale church is one of 52 in Southern California to observe this custom. This Home was established several years ago by L. J. Massie of Long Beach and there are now 12 inmates.

BLANFORD-BENSON WEDDING

Albert Blanford, athletic instructor at Intermediate School, has forsaken the ranks of bachelors. He and Miss Helen Benson, of San Fernando, were united in marriage Friday night at the home of Mr. Blanford's grandmother in Los Angeles. Only the relatives of bride and groom and the officiating clergymen were present. They have not yet decided where they will make their home and they may decide to locate in Glendale.

"CURSE YE, MEROZ"

SERMON ON THIS TOPIC AT LUTHERAN CHURCH SUNDAY MORNING

Yesterday morning was a splendid hour at 11 o'clock for all who gathered in the Lutheran Church, corner Harvard street and Maryland avenue. Some strong and right-to-the-point suggestions were made by the pastor on the very timely subject, "The Kind of People the Church Needs Today." Rev. Mottern took for his text, Judges 5:23, "Curse Ye Meroz, saith the Angel of the Lord. Curse ye the inhabitants thereof, because they came not to the help of the Lord: to the help of the Lord against the mighty." Some of the pithy and straightforward things the pastor had to say were as follows:

"What God curses is cursed and what He blesses is blessed. The people of the City of Meroz were guilty of indifference and inaction. They had not done something wrong, but they had not done what was right when they had a glorious chance to do it for God and country. Having the enemy of God and Israel in their hands they withheld patriotic fervor and allowed him to escape. They be-

SERIOUSLY ILL

COMPLICATIONS FOLLOWING OPERATION JEOPARDIZE LIFE OF C. W. KIMBERLY

David Crofton, of the Glendale Commandery, Knights Templar, is in receipt of a telegram from Mrs. Chas. Wallace Kimberly, who is at the bedside of her husband in Rochester, Minnesota, stating that a change in his condition has occurred since the first favorable reports were sent out following his operation made under the Mayo Brothers, and that he is now suffering from uremic poisoning, though he is better than he was a few days ago. The telegram stated that Mrs. Kimberly would advise Mr. Crofton should any change for the worse take place in her husband's condition. On behalf of the local Commandery, Mr. Crofton at once telegraphed the Commandery at Rochester, Minn., to do everything possible to aid and comfort Mr. and Mrs. Kimberly and to keep the sick man supplied with flowers at the expense of the Glendale Lodge. He also sent a telegram to Mrs. Kimberly extending to her the sympathy of members of the Commandery and expressing the earnest hope that the life of her husband would be spared. Mr. Kimberly is a member of Glendale Commandery No. 53.

TELEPHONE TIE-UP

EVENING NEWS RESORTS TO OLD RELIABLE WAY OF GATHERING NEWS

Something went wrong with the Glendale Telephone exchange this forenoon. Maybe all the phones have been removed, or maybe the call girls are off on a holiday. Some one said a strike was on but that can not be possible for the girls are sufficiently capable to get positions in other lines of business if they are not suited with wages and hours at the switchboard. In the meantime the Evening News is enjoying the old reliable way of gathering news items, and we went to press just a little earlier today than usual.

J. G. HUNTLEY AND FAMILY

J. G. Huntley, who went East via San Francisco, where he spent several days, is now in Chicago. Just how long he will be there Mrs. Huntley has not been advised. She says that Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Smith are having a very delightful tour with cool, pleasant weather all the way. Their last letter announced they would be in the Yosemite the first of this week and will probably remain for two or three weeks. Mrs. Smith has been there several times. She knows the valley from one end to the other, and loves it, so they will know just how to utilize their time to the best advantage. On the way north they made stops in Santa Barbara, Del Monte, Monterey and San Francisco and are now homeward bound in the expectation of reaching here about the first of the month.

WORDS FITLY SPOKEN

SERMON FILLED WITH SOUND ADVICE ADDRESSED TO GRADUATES

The main floor of the auditorium of the First M. E. church was crowded to the doors Sunday evening and there were many in the gallery when eight o'clock came. The graduates occupied the front pews in the center of the church and the ministers of the city were seated back of the pulpit. Rev. O. P. Rider, president of the Ministerial association was in charge of the services which opened with an organ prelude, "The Lost Chord." Then followed a processionary hymn, invocation by Dr. Willisford, scripture reading by Rev. Edmonds from Romans, 12th chapter, anthem by the choir, prayer by Rev. Mottern, taking of the offering, solo by Miss Isrig and then the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. Clifford A. Cole of Central Christian church. The speaker announced his subject, "The Marks of a Sent Life," and the text, "There was a man sent from God whose name was John." He began by recalling his own experience in listening to the baccalaureate sermon addressed to his class one Sunday morning several years ago, on working for others, and he went from the presence of the good man who delivered the sermon feeling that there had been laid upon him a definite task, and he resolved then and there to do his best for God and his fellowmen. This man sent from God had a mission, the speaker

STRIKERS' PLACES PROMPTLY FILLED

TELEPHONE SERVICE NOT INTERRUPTED IN LOS ANGELES WHERE COMPANY FILLED EVERY JOB

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LOS ANGELES, June 16.—Girl telephone operators in Los Angeles, also linemen, switchmen and electrical workers employed by telephone companies struck at eight o'clock this morning despite the fact that the proposed strike was postponed everywhere else in the country.

The exact number striking is indefinite. Union officials said 1200 girls out of 1500 employed, quit, and that 500 men walked out. They said that other parts of Southern California were not affected unless possibly some men struck in San Diego.

The company said that by nine this morning it had every job in the city filled and that the service was not affected. At Labor Temple, however, the girls held a strike meeting. It was estimated that 500 attended. Another party picketed the telephone office. During the morning subscribers had little difficulty in getting telephone calls.

AMERICANS WITHIN RIGHTS

CROSSED THE RIO GRANDE TO "PROTECT LIFE ON AMERICAN SIDE," SAYS SECRETARY BAKER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, June 16.—Secretary of War Baker declared there is no possibility of a misunderstanding with Mexico as a result of the American crossing of the Rio Grande, as the expedition was entirely for the purpose of "protecting life on the American side."

U. S. TROOPS OCCUPY JUAREZ

WILL WITHDRAW WHEN THE SAFETY OF EL PASO HAS BEEN ASSURED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
EL PASO, June 16.—United States troops are in full possession of Juarez. The cavalry are scouring the territory south and east of the city and capturing or killing every Villistas found. After snipers had killed one American, orders were given to kill snipers on sight.

General Erwin who ordered the Americans to cross into Mexico at eleven last night, after two persons had been killed on the American side of the line, declared that as soon as the safety of El Paso was assured the troops would be withdrawn.

Villistas were entrenched at the Juarez race track. Negro troops of the 22th Infantry attacked them at 2 o'clock in the morning after fording the Rio Grande. Within thirty minutes the Villistas were dispersed. They began to waver after the first few minutes. Artillery from the American side line aided by throwing a box barrage around the race track. American cavalry cut in behind the Villistas forcing them to scatter to avoid capture.

Carranzista's commander, Gonzales, declared that the American intervention was unnecessary, but did not interfere.

American casualties thus far reported as a result of the morning's battle are two slightly wounded. Thirty-six dead Villistas had been counted, but the total casualties are probably much larger.

General Erwin, commanding the Americans, at ten o'clock this morning issued a statement in which he said: "Our work is finished. I will probably order our troops back from Juarez at noon—certainly today." He said the Villistas were completely routed and that the Americans were driving them "in every direction."

ALLIED REPLY DELIVERED TONIGHT

IF NOT SIGNED BY GERMANS WITHIN FIVE DAYS ALLIES WILL RESUME MILITARY OPERATIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, June 16.—It was officially announced here today that Secretary Dutasta of the peace conference will hand the German delegates the allied answer to German counter proposals at seven o'clock this evening.

The Germans will have five days in which to sign. If they refuse to sign, the Allies will immediately resume military operations.

What Dutasta is to give the Germans will be the real "Treaty of Paris," differing materially from the "conditions of peace" formerly presented to the Germans. It is explanatory in tone and seeks to impress them with the fact that only justice is sought.

PRESIDENT WILSON TO TOUR U. S.

WILL COME TO PACIFIC COAST AND SPEAK IN LOS ANGELES AND 'FRISCO ON BEHALF OF LEAGUE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, June 16.—A private cablegram which was received today revealed the fact that a tour of the United States by President Wilson on behalf of the League of Nations will immediately follow his return from Europe; that he will go to the Pacific Coast and probably speak both in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

ORATORICAL CONTEST

PHILIP WERNETTE WINS PLACE OF HONOR IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA COMPETITION

Quite a delegation from Glendale Union High went to Los Angeles Friday evening to attend the Southern California Oratorical contest and were well pleased with the manner in which the school's champion, Philip Wernette acquitted himself. He made a fine oration and delivered it in a splendid manner and though the judges did not see fit to give him the place to which some of his friends thought he was entitled, they felt that he had made good and represented his school in a highly creditable manner. To Clarence Ralston of Glendale High, who won the championship last year, was given the honor of presiding at the contest, an office he filled with grace and dignity.

Six schools participated, viz., Pasadena High, L. A. High, Jefferson High, Hollywood High, Glendale High and San Diego High. First place was awarded Pasadena, the second went to Los Angeles High, the third to San Diego.

The orations were given in the following order: First, Sidney Grossman of Hollywood who spoke on "The Spirit of France;" second, Philip Wernette on "Americans All;" third, Wendell Hubbard of Los Angeles High on "The Tutelage of Mexico," in which he took the ground that this small republic should be

WATER BOND ELECTION

Bear in mind that tomorrow, Tuesday, June 17, is the day of the Water bond election. At this election the voters of the city will be called upon to ballot for or against a bond issue of $196,000. The money proposed to be raised is to be used for improvements and extensions in the water system. The investment is a good one and will still make Glendale a more desirable place in which to live. Polls are open from 6 a. m. to 7 p. m.

FLAG DAY CELEBRATED

BEAUTIFULLY OBSERVED BY ELKS' LODGE SATURDAY NIGHT

A most impressive observance of Flag Day was that at Elks' Lodge Hall Saturday evening, in charge of Exalted Ruler Cameron Thom. The opening number was the building of the floral Liberty Bell, a most beautiful ceremonial performed by brothers of the lodge, one laying down the platform of red, typified by roses, another a layer of white, represented by lilies and another a bar of blue, represented by violets, with the beam above in white, emblazoned with stars. All was erected into a beautiful Liberty Bell. Art Dibbern gave a brief, but succinct, history of the flag. Bert Woodard paid a glowing tribute to it and then E. B. Drake, Past Exalted Ruler, of Los Angeles 99, made a patriotic address, paying high honors to Old Glory. Norman Otis gave two beautiful songs, "The Americans Come" and "Dear Little Boy of Mine," and the entire audience sang "America" and "Star Spangled Banner." A three-piece Los Angeles orchestra with violin, harp and cello furnished lovely music during the evening. Seldom has there been seen a more beautiful and impressive service than this and there should have been a much larger attendance.

NATIONAL RALLY

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS CELEBRATE NATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY DAY

Seventh-Day Adventists throughout the United States celebrated Sabbath School Rally Day last Saturday with appropriate exercises. The program here included services at the Glendale Seventh Day Adventist Church, Isabel street and Wilson avenue, both in the morning and afternoon. The church was crowded at both meetings. In opening the morning program, C. E. Kimlin, superintendent of the school, spoke briefly on "Why Have Rally Day?" He said all should study the Scriptures daily and attend the Sabbath School regularly.

Pastor M. M. Hare, president of the Southern California Conference of the Adventists, spoke on "The Sabbath School as a Recruiting Station." Six little girls from the kindergarten division sang a motion song, "It Never Pays to Be Bad." The program also included a recitation by Frank Travis, "A Plan;" a reading

LECTURE TOUR

H. V. ADAMS LEAVING FOR CHAUTAUQUA WORK IN MIDDLE WESTERN STATES

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Adams and their daughter, Irene Adams, are moving back to Glendale from Pasadena to take possession of property they have bought at 436 West California in the expectation of making their permanent home here.

Mr. Adams started Sunday on his Chautauqua lecture tour of the Central West to be gone about eight weeks. He will speak every day on the League of Nations in connection with his Chautauqua work. He returned a few weeks ago from a trip in the central part of the United States and says he is satisfied from the sentiments he heard expressed wherever he went that eighty to ninety per cent. of the people are favorable to the League of Nations. Concerning it he said:

"People do not generally contend that it is a perfect document or that it will bring about an absolute reign of peace, but it is well worth trying, they think, because it has the promise of better things. And they do not fear jeopardy to the Monroe Doctrine or responsibilities in connection with other nations.

"The League of Nations proposes not to force but to act in an advisory capacity, therefore there is no chance for the destruction of our initiative. One contention which has been made is that it would destroy our sovereignty, but the people do not feel that way about it as a rule."

Mr. Adams stated that his travels had covered Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Nebraska and Colorado, and that he has found similar sentiment in California.

ALL READY FOR AIR TRIPS

L. C. Brand's hangar was completed last week by the contractors and his big Curtis type biplane, Mono Eagle, is housed within it. Yesterday he and his pilot, Lieut. Elon Brown, made a flight to the Venice aviation field. Lieut. Brown is an expert, having spent 22 months in air service, part of the time at Arcadia. The Mono Eagle cost $12,000 to build. It has a wing spread of 35 feet and its engine develops 150 horsepower. Mr. Brand expects to use the bi-plane for trips between his North Glendale home and his ranch at Mono Lake, 300 miles north.

MRS. T. D. OGG ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Thomas Ogg was hostess on Friday at one of the most beautiful functions that has ever taken place in Glendale, when the members of the Hospitality Committee of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, of which Mrs. Ogg has been chairman the past year, were entertained by her at a course luncheon, the ladies for whom covers were laid being: Mesdames Claud Case, C. O. Pulliam, A. A. Barton, George Herald, W. L. Andrews, R. M. Brown, W. W. Ramsay and the hostess. A pink and white color scheme was cleverly carried out in table appointments and menu. Above the table and descending to the corners were festoons of pink baby ribbon and from them depended pink butterflies. Nut baskets and place cards also repeated the color note, which reappeared in a delicious pink salad. Following the luncheon a very pleasant social afternoon was enjoyed by the guests.

PRETTY DANCE

MR. AND MRS. JOHN ROBERT WHITE ENTERTAIN FRIENDS OF THEIR SON ROBERT

Mr. and Mrs. John Robert White of 347 North Orange street entertained Friday evening with a dancing party for their son, John Robert White, Jr. They were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. McCourt, Mrs. W. T. Thompson, Mrs. Fell and Mrs. Hardenburg. The hour was a pretty sight when taken possession of by the young people, the girls in pretty light colored party dresses, the boys in white flannels. Dancing stopped at 11 o'clock, when punch, ice-cream and cake were served in the breakfast room, the guests being taken home in the White automobile and finding the ride in the bright moonlight an unexpected treat. The boys and girls who attended the party were Misses Editha Atkinson, Helen Beach, Agnes Brown, Virginia Huntley, Evelyn Gregg, Helen Thompson, Bettie Fell, Kathleen Campbell and Doris Packer, Messrs. Ted Thompson, Sam Thompson, Robert McCourt, Jr., John Richardson, David Folz, Mr. Colburn, Tom Lyons and J. Robert White, Jr.

SOLDIERS OF THE WOODEN CROSS

The following eloquent tribute to those who "sleep in Flanders fields" delivered by Right Reverend Charles Henry Brent, D. D., at memorial services held with the regiments (305, 306, 307) of the 77th division, A. E. F., near Chateau Villain, January 5, 1919, was read by Mrs. T. W. Preston of this city at a recent meeting of General Richard Gridley chapter, D. A. R.:

The lips of a British war poet, before they were hushed in death by the battle's stern lullaby, were stung into song in an immortal sonnet:

If I should die, think only this of me:
 There is some corner of a foreign field
 That is forever England.

Rupert Brooke here gives the keynote of the soldiers who have earned by the supreme sacrifice the highest and proudest of all decorations, the Wooden Cross. Medals that adorn the uniform tell of courage and endurance and heroism that braved the worst for the cause. Their wearers live to hear the acclaim of their comrades. But there is another decoration, the commonest even though the most distinguished of all, the Wooden Cross that is awarded only to the men who have done the greatest thing that man—yes, even God—can do. Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends.

Now that "grim-visaged war has smoothed his wrinkled front," we gather to pay simple homage to our comrades who have the supreme distinction of the Wooden Cross.

Yonder they lie, along that front where with face to the foe they counted not their lives dear unto themselves but bore the standard of liberty onward. Above their graves rise the sheltering arms of the rough-hewn cross than which no fitter monument ever reared its form over mortal remains.

Our comrades they were. Our comrades they are. Death was powerless in the face of their brave daring to rob us of them or them of us. They are separated now from us, not by the gaping gulf of time but by a veil so thin that at times we almost see their figures through its waving folds. They live—live gloriously in the land of far distances. Death stripped them of nothing essential. In the permanent society of the world beyond this they think and speak and see and love. They are what they were, except so far as the river of death has washed away the dust of earth and left them cleaner and better by reason of this their last great adventure. They keep pace with us, and we must keep pace with them.

One army of the living God,
 To His command we bow;
 Part of the host has crossed the flood,
 And part is crossing now.

We cannot rehearse the story of each one's going as he went over the top to meet the foe and found his rendezvous with death on shell-scarred slope or battered hill, or in some flaming town or maze of tangled wire. The same dauntless spirit moved them, one and all. There was something dearer than life. To it they gave themselves and their all, and won the decoration of the Wooden Cross.

Here, for instance, is a chaplain whose unstudied cry as the finger of death touched him was: "Father, I thank Thee for this affliction." Not that he courted pain as in itself a blessing, but as an opportunity to show God and men that he was able in all things to be super-victor. Now it is not a chaplain but a doughboy that is smitten. "Buddy," says his comrade who holds him while his life rushes out in a crimson flood—"Buddy, have you any message for the folks at home?" "Yes," is the prompt reply of the dying Gahad. "Tell them I went as clean as I came." Again, look at that stiff, silent body, much of the glory of its splendid manhood still lingering behind as though loth to abandon the well-knit form. Death in him is not ugly or repulsive. His left hand still clutches the bosom of his shirt, which he tore aside that his right hand might hold through death his crucifix, the symbol of his faith. He thought dead, speaketh:

Nothing in my hand I bring,
 Simply to Thy Cross I cling.

These men and a myriad more are calling to us, calling to us and bidding us to carry on. If we would still hold to their comradeship we must display in life, the spirit they displayed in death. We must live for the things for which they died. They "went west" beyond the sun. Soon in another sense shall we, please God, go West—west across the sea—to that dear land, America, that is impatient for the pressure of our feet. We must make ourselves fit to meet, with unshamed brow, wife, sweetheart, sister, Mother. Our going may not be to lower our sense of service and look for any reward except opportunity to serve again and better. Patriotism finds in war only a starting place for peace. That which we have achieved by victory we must weave into the fabric of the new world and the new age. The Wooden Cross of our dead comrades is for them a glorious decoration. For us it is the banner of our life that is to be. It challenges us to hold more precious than mortal life, ideals of honor, justice and righteousness. After all, the cross that redeemed the world was a wooden cross, too, was it not? It was no toy or pretty bauble, but a thing of nails and pain and death—and yet a thing of glory. According to its pattern we shape our own cross.

FIFTH MEETING OF HEART CLUB

The fifth meeting of the Heart Club since its organization was held Thursday evening at the home of Harry Wilson and wife, 208 South Louise. The rooms were beautifully decorated in yellow, Black-eyed Susans predominating. Sandwiches and chocolate were served. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Furst tied for the first prize, a beautiful cut glass dish. Howard Ford carried off the booby prize. After cards Herbert Henning at the piano and Miss Dorothy Morton as songstress, delighted all with some fine music. Meetings of the club are held every other Thursday, taking the rounds of the members. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Furst, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Horner, Herbert Henning and Miss Dorothy Morton. These, with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson, constitute the club membership. The Horners, Miss Morton and Mr. Henning were but recently taken into membership.

SATURDAY FIRES

A fire alarm from 431 West Harvard street sent the engine of Station No. 1 flying to the scene about 12 o'clock Saturday. A small blaze in a lot which threatened an adjoining house and which started no one knew how, was the occasion for the alarm but the fire was extinguished by a garden hose before the engines got there.

A call about 2 o'clock sent the Chief's "Red Devil" loaded with several men, armed with shovels, to a grass fire on North Brand boulevard.

 er said. He was made in the image of God and sent for a purpose. Every person born into this world has his work born with him and God demands that this work be accomplished. No preacher should work merely to make a name in the world, no physician simply to make money, no lawyer solely to win cases. There should be a definite purpose in each life and that purpose to uplift others. Find your place and then fill it. But do not leave God out of your plans. Thus, the first of the four marks of a sent life which the sermon dealt with was that it must have a purpose.

The second mark is that it must be a clean life. God did not provide sin but he does provide a way to escape from it. There is an idealism about college life and it is presumed that many of the graduates are planning a college course in which the ideal should be lived up to and the life there kept clean. Thus only will it be a help in the struggle upward.

Third, the sent life should bear marks of power. Jesus enunciated a doctrine new to the world when he said, "If any among you would be first, let him be the servant of all," and he set the example of serving all through his ministry. And his followers can attain power only by serving others. Eventually the world will strew palms in the pathway of him who serves. New York reared a monument to Peter Cooper, the friend of young men, and Philadelphia honored Stephen Girard in the same way because they devoted their lives and all of their powers to serving others. And there is a building in Washington today, the costliest monument ever erected to a mere man and this is to honor Abraham Lincoln whose life of wonderful power was lived wholly for his fellowmen. In every great crisis of human history a man is ready to meet the emergency and God always uses the man who will serve. Alfred the Great, Charlemagne, John Wickliffe, Luther, Savanarola, John Knox, John Calvin, these are examples of men who were ready at a critical time to serve the people and their God and each felt that he was sent. The greatest sin of this world is selfishness, which is the cause of all wars. It is the enemy of everything good. No man has a right to live for himself, merely to obtain riches or fame. So, no pupil has a right to obtain an education simply as a stepping stone to fame or riches. Get an education to make a life that will count for God and fellow men. The highest aim in this life is to make the unfit fit.

The fourth mark of a sent life is that it honors God and his church. "Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness and all else shall be added unto you." There are more victims of a bad choice than of pestilence and war. I believe with all my soul that a man cannot be a true citizen of a country devoted to self government unless he is a Christian. He must know Him whom to know is eternal life. Those touch most deeply the hearts of men whose lives are in touch with God.

The youth sent from God must then bear the marks of high service, of power and of honoring God and his church. Will that be your aim in life, young man, young woman?

The address was listened to with closest attention by graduates and audience and all were highly pleased with it. After singing a hymn, the audience was dismissed by Rev. Cookman.

BIG RAISIN CROP PREDICTED

(By United Press)
 FRESNO, Cal., June 16.—California's raisin industry will this season produce the largest crop of raisin grapes in the state's history, said C. A. Murdoch today. Murdoch is secretary of the California Associated Raisin Co., which markets raisins for over 9000 growers who control the company.
 "I predict a harvest of 200,000 tons, as against 167,000 tons last year," said Murdoch. "And they will be of good quality, if present indications are borne out."
 Much can happen, Murdoch admitted, before the raisins are picked in September and October. Rains in those months would damage the crop seriously.
 California's raisin crop has grown steadily in size. Here is the record: 1914, 98,000 tons; 1915, 130,000 tons; 1916, 132,000 tons; 1917, 163,000 tons; 1918, 167,000 tons. The California Associated Raisin Co. was organized in 1913. Before that time the average crop had been about 70,000 tons.

ONE BY ONE

One by one our friends depart,
 And the world grows colder;
 Voids are left within the heart
 As we're getting older.
 Dear ones lost, and naught is left
 Save their memory only,
 Life is of its joys bereft
 And we're feeling lonely.

Faces fair that once were dear,
 No more smile upon us;
 Voices that once gave us cheer,
 Kind ones who once won us,
 Now are but a vision past,
 Dreams that have departed,
 Leaving us in grief at last,
 Sorrowing—broken hearted.

Fate has seemed unkind to Thee,
 And thy dearest treasures,
 Take unto them wings and flee,
 Robbing life of pleasures,
 Oh! 'tis hard,—'tis sad,—'tis drear,
 Clouds obscure the ending,
 Few things left that once were dear,
 Life with death seems blending.

What the future has in store,
 Is beyond our knowing,
 Maybe,—on that mystic shore,
 Friendship's flame is glowing
 Here thy chastened spirit waits,
 Hoping, when they call it;
 You may meet within its gates,
 A position thou may'st fit.

Personals
Mrs. John O. Cross of Union Star, Mo., arrived last Friday for a few months' visit with her daughter, Mrs. A. Jud Shepard, on Pioneer Drive.
James Howarth, at one time connected with the Pacific Union Conference, is planning to build a residence on North Isabel, near Lexington Drive.
Mrs. F. B. Williamson of Chico is spending the summer with her parents, B. O. Cole and wife, of Los Angeles, and her brothers, Rev. Clifford, John and Forrest Cole, in Glendale.
Miss Ina Whitaker, Miss Louise Ayala and Mrs. Marquis had the pleasure of attending a reception for members of the Rainbow Division and their friends given in Highland Park Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lieb.
Mrs. Emma Hillerby and daughter, Edith, of Jacksonville, Ill., who came out here from Jacksonville for the daughter's health and located at Hermosa Beach, have been spending several days with A. F. Webster and family, 208 West Elk avenue.
In celebration of Mrs. Jackson's birthday, D. Ripley Jackson and his wife renewed their honeymoon and drove to Los Angeles Friday evening for a dinner at the Athletic Club, subsequently going to the beach for an evening of dancing and another supper.
Anton Reckart, who was for a number of years in the U. S. Indian service, has entered the employ of Dr. Henry R. Harrower and has brought his wife, his son and daughter to Glendale to live. They have secured a home on Colorado boulevard.

The annual "Battle Creek Picnic" is announced for June 29th at Brookside Park. A large number of the Glendale Sanitarium staff and others who at one time or another have been connected with the Michigan institution, but who now live in Glendale, will attend.
Tickets for annual luncheon of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, which is the big function of its year, and which will take place June 24th at the First Methodist Church of Glendale, are now ready, and will be on sale at a number of places listed elsewhere. Reservations will close Saturday night.
About twenty members of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Central Christian Church enjoyed an informal little party Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Musser, of West Windsor Road. After an evening of games and music, delicious refreshments were served by the host and hostess to their guests.
An addition in the shape of a bedroom and sleeping porch to the home of Dr. Henry R. Harrower at Cedar and Broadway has been just about completed by the contractor, T. H. Addison. Dr. and Mrs. Harrower leave Friday for a six-weeks' trip to Oregon on which they will camp by the way, spending some time in the Yosemite.

At the concert and dance to be given this evening at Masonic Hall by the Pacific Mutual Glee Club, under the auspices of St. Mark's choir, the following young ladies will assist as ushers: Misses Barbara Mitchell, Eileen Sullivan, Dorothy Hunt, and Ruth Wilson. Assisting at the punch table and on the reception committee will be the Misses Nellie Williams, Lorraine Mitchell, Louise Ayala and Olive Williams.

HER FOURTEENTH BIRTHDAY
In celebration of her fourteenth birthday, Miss Emily Bellue entertained a few girl chums Friday afternoon at the home of her parents, 352 Myrtle street. They entertained themselves with the game of pinning the tail on the donkey at which diversion Elma Engle won first prize and Lillian Owen the booby prize. They also had a little dance, some music and a general good time in spite of the fact that it was Friday the 13th. The party refreshments included a handsome birthday cake adorned with pink candles, and pink Cherokee roses centered the table, at which covers were laid for Misses Ruth Elliott, Ruth Bullard, Lillian Owens, Marie Fickel, Velma Morrell, Nellie Butler, Elma Engle, Emily and Stella Bellue.

ENTERTAINED TEACHER
The Doran Street P.-T. A. entertained the teachers and pupils of the school with a picnic at Brookside Park, Saturday, June 14th. Autos were furnished to take the party to and from the park.
The children spent the day enjoying the many amusements provided at the park for their entertainment. At noon an elaborate feast was enjoyed beneath a spreading oak tree where tables had been reserved. All voted the day a perfect one.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR
Glendale Commandery, No. 53, will hold a special meeting, Wednesday evening, June 18th, instead of Monday the 16th. The order of the Temple will be conferred. Visitors urged to be present.
G. D. CROFTON, Commander.
C. C. RITTENHOUSE, Recorder.

FLAG DAY SERVICE AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Flag Day was most fittingly observed at the morning service in the Presbyterian Church. Representatives from nearly every patriotic organization were present and members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C., with the Boy Scouts, filled the middle section of the church; each body forming at a convenient meeting place and marching with their flags and banners to the church. The church was beautifully decorated with flags and the program was excellent. Rev. C. R. Norton of the Post led in prayer. Clifford Riggs gave a vocal solo, "Land of Mine;" Mrs. R. D. Jones gave a beautiful patriotic reading and at its close the pipe organ pealed forth the "Star Spangled Banner," under the efficient handling of Mr. Chappell. The sermon by Rev. W. E. Edmonds was from the text found in Acts 22:28, "I paid a large sum for my citizenship, said the chief captain; and Paul said, but I was free born." Christianity and patriotism were so intermingled as to be proven inseparable and the Bible and the flag bound together with the principles and standards for which our fathers shed their blood and established this nation. At the close of the sermon Mrs. Etta Gibbons sang "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" and the hour of morning worship closed with the benediction.

DEATH OF CHARLES OLIVER REED
Charles Oliver Reed passed away at the home of his son, June 14th, aged 89 years. He leaves to mourn his passing a son, C. E. Reed, of 309 North Brand boulevard, at whose home he was when he passed away, also a son, Albert S. Reed, of Minneapolis, Minn. Deceased had been a resident of California for many years, having lived in Glendale for 10 years. For 15 years he carried on a lumber business in Fredrick, South Dakota. "Grandpa Reed," as he was known to many of his close friends, always had a cheery word for every one. Funeral services will be held from the parlors of the Jewel City Undertaking Co. Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. Rev. C. H. Scott and Rev. Henry Goodsell will have charge of the service, the latter having been his pastor 50 years ago. Interment will be at Forest Lawn Cemetery.

CLASS PICNIC
Members of the AS 1 enjoyed a delightful picnic Saturday at Brookside Park. About thirty-five boys and girls left Glendale at 9:30 with the determination to have a good time and they had it, enjoying to the full all the pleasures provided by the park in the way of swimming, games, etc. Of course the out-door lunch was an event and when they returned about 4 p. m. they were still happy in the recollection of a good day behind them. They were accompanied by their class teacher, Miss Midcalf, by Superintendent Richardson D. White, Miss Noble, Vice-Principal, Miss White, Miss Jones and Miss Jackson, also by Mesdames Farnum, Burr and J. B. Clark.

SUCCESSFUL CARD PARTY
The card party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Faries, 404 North Louise street, Saturday evening, under the auspices of St. Mark's Choir, was a very pleasant social affair of eight tables, at which Claud O. Pulliam captured the gentlemen's prize, a handsome necktie, the ladies' prize, a young palm tree, going to Mrs. De Lamont Green of Lomita avenue. At the close of play, refreshments were served.

W. C. T. U. LUNCHEON
The end of a contest by two teams who worked to secure new members for the Glendale W. C. T. U. was marked by a delightful luncheon with which the defeated team entertained the winners at the home of Mrs. Weien on Grand View avenue in Eagle Rock Friday afternoon. No formal program was provided, just a social good time of games, music and conversation, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

AS 3 PARTY
The Intermediate AS 3 enjoyed a class party Friday night at the home of Frances Wyman Friday evening at which they played games, danced and had a general good time, and enjoyed nice refreshments. The girls and boys entertained were: Ellene Truitt, Cornelia Wilson, Pauline Neer, Rosabel Arnett, Charlotte Winsel, Lucile Stubb, Lucile Thompson, Genevieve Straite, Martha Phillips, Frances Wyman, Edith Dutcher, Leona Price, Grace Yarbrough, Donaldson Phillips, Donald Peterson, Robert Stanford, Robert Roach, Roland Current, Louis Urquidez, Jack Rice, Lee Payne, Lawrence Smith, Edward Stockbridge, Frederick Easley, Frederick Newlin, Frank Richardson, Edwin Cessler, Thomas McClelland, Howard Wimmer.

OPERATED ON FOR APPENDICITIS
A. W. Dickinson, of 220 North Central avenue, underwent an operation for appendicitis Saturday evening. At last accounts he was doing well. He is a member of the Elks' Lodge and was in the K. of C. minstrel show. His many friends will be greatly surprised to learn of this as he was stricken very suddenly.

24 FIRES IN 15 DAYS
The Glendale Fire Department or at least the force at Fire House No. 1 was called out Sunday about 1:50 p. m. to extinguish a grass fire at 400 Elk street. The fire chief states that there have been 24 fires within the last fifteen days, practically all of them due to carelessness in burning off grass or incinerating rubbish. In the twenty-four calls the loss was only about $10, but the loss to the city amounts to considerably more than that as the expense of taking out the fire engine is about $10 every run it makes. There are ordinances regulating the burning of trash and it has been suggested that persons who violate them should be prosecuted and fined to restore to the city some of the money it is expending in responding to the calls.

PRACTICAL CHRISTIANITY
"Ho everyone that thirsteth" was the call that went out to able-bodied members of St. Mark's Church last Friday evening and as Glendale is a dry town and St. Mark's parish contains many enterprising citizens, a goodly number turned with shovels and hoes and worked effectively on the church lot to make it tidy and rid it of weeds. There were blistered palms exhibited at the party Saturday night and at the Sunday service, but they were honorable scars and the recruits for that kind of practical Christianity promise to renew the task next Thursday and then do other things to beautify the lot.

ALUMNI DAY AT L. A. NORMAL
Alumni Day at the Los Angeles State Normal School—Saturday—brought a host of visitors not all of whom were alumni. Some of the guests were students contemplating entrance there who may some day be alumni. Now that it has been affiliated as a branch of the State University where students from Southern California can take the first two years of University work it is on the way to becoming an important college in a larger sense than it has been heretofore when its work was confined to the training of teachers. It will be comparatively convenient for Glendale High School graduates who want to take up advanced work either along university or pedagogic lines; for connection can be made from the Glendale to the Hollywood cars which convey students to the Normal School.

A visitor who went from Glendale inspected the physical training and witnessed a ball game between two teams, one made up of students, the other of alumni, and the alumni won, which shows they do not forget their skill after leaving school. Glendale young women who are taking courses and who were there to participate in the open house, to which the Normal invites its friends every year were: Misses Taylor, Esther Schremp, Catherine Phillips, Dorothy Hunt, Florence Kenworthy.

BEAUTIFUL DOG POISONED
Cameron Thom is on the war path and feels that he has just reason for his indignation. A beautiful and highly bred cocker spaniel dog, the playmate of his children, was wantonly poisoned, and is dead. This, he says, is but one of twenty dogs which have gone the same way, and he announces his willingness to pay a large sum for information which will lead to the arrest and conviction of the poisoner. Meantime he urges dog owners to carefully watch their pets and keep them at home if they value their lives.

When interviewed in regard to the matter police officials were non-committal, declaring that the dog in question was probably the victim of the poison put out some time ago and that no fresh raid on dogs has taken place. They intimate that they have strong suspicions as to who the guilty parties are and the reasons which actuated the poisoning, which reasons it would not do to divulge, nor the name of the suspect because as yet the crime cannot be proved.

RETURNED SOLDIERS NOT BOOZE ADVOCATES
Dr. Selecman, in his address before the Federated Brotherhood last Friday evening, made one statement that met with the enthusiastic approval of every person present. He was talking of the clean life the boys led and the general high moral tone in the army and he said most emphatically: "And I want to brand as an infamous lie that charge that when the boys come home they'll want to overturn the Prohibition legislation that has been enacted in their absence. The vast majority of them came from clean homes and they will want those homes kept from the great destroyer. I know there is an insidious propaganda abroad in the land to make us believe to the contrary, but it is infamously false. The boys will be true to the home fireside."

Tickets for the annual luncheon of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, June 24th, can be secured for 75c each at the following places: Glendale Phonograph Co., Glendale Paint & Paper Co., and from Mesdames C. E. Norton, T. D. Ogg, H. D. Goss, L. N. Rudy and George Nash. 24211*

placed under mandatory powers to be exercised by some other country, probably the United States; fourth, Harold Sloan of Pasadena whose theme was "Co-operation," which he developed along general lines as the spirit of progress, leading up to the League of Nations as the last word in co-operation; fifth, Lee Payne of Jefferson High who made an appeal for "Justice for Russia;" and sixth, Virginia Shaw of San Diego, whose subject was "Sending the Bread Basket to Europe."

The judges of thought and composition, who were the heads of the English Departments of Pomona and Occidental Colleges and of U. S. C., united in giving first place to Harold Sloan of Pasadena. In their totals Philip Wernette of Glendale was tied with the representative of L. A. High and Jefferson High came third.

The judges of delivery were Prof. Henry Weiman, head of the Department of Sociology of Occidental; Prof. Lowry, head of the History Department of U. S. C., and Mr. White, one of the teachers in Manual Arts High. There was no unanimity in their markings, their votes being considerably split up. One gave first place to Pasadena, one to L. A. High and one to San Diego. When the totals came in Glendale was tied with San Diego for third place with the percentages very close, the Southern city getting 263 against 259 1/2 votes for Glendale.

The gold medal of the Southern California League went to Pasadena and the silver one to Los Angeles High. Pasadena, of course, captured the silver cup which Glendale has held the past year. It was surrendered by Glendale with the adjuration to take good care of it because our orator would try to recapture it next year.

Because of the influenza the schedule of the Suburban League could not be carried out and the only schools represented in the arenas were Pasadena and Glendale High. To the first therefore was awarded the gold medal and to Philip Wernette the silver medal of that league, which will be presented to him next Friday at Glendale High.

There was similar default in the L. A. City League and the medal and banner were last night given to L. A. High for first place, and to Hollywood for second place.

The local delegation which went to back the Glendale representative included: Prof. Arthur Oliver of the Department of Mechanics, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Wernette, Prof. W. D. Root, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, and quite a group of students which numbered Guy Bennett, Leland Wise, Paul and Ralph Hutchinson, Clarence Ralston, John Worley and others prominent in the student body.

by Miss Violet Bell, "Armies Are Demobilizing, What Shall We Do?" a recitation by Dorothy Carpenter, "What Then?" a duet by Miss Olive Adams and Clarence Jones, "There's Work to Be Done;" and a round table discussion.

An illustrated song, "Good and True," by the primary division opened the afternoon program. Other numbers included, "Keep the Mission Fires Burning," Mrs. Harris; recitation, "God Wants the Boys and Girls," Chester MacDonald and Elva Jones; a short talk on the Philippine islands by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Baker; "Things Useful and Pretty," by Misses Pansy Beddoe, Miriam Stevens and Birdie Stevens; recitation, "The Lambs Follow the Sheep," by Charlotte Jewel, and "A Picture of Our Conference Sabbath School Work," by Mrs. H. G. Westphal.

LA CANADA

Mr. and Mrs. Kent Savage and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cornell accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Max Green, took in the dance at La Crescenta last Saturday night and then spent the night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Green.

Van Green is out for a couple of weeks' vacation and is a guest at the E. J. Green ranch.

Herbert Bentley was host at a most enjoyable stag party given last Friday evening in honor of returned soldiers who had been his college chums. They were entertained at his home on Commonwealth avenue and several La Canada and La Crescenta men were guests, the party numbering about twenty. Some very exciting stories of war experiences were told.

Miss Lulu Green will leave in about two weeks for Washington, D. C., where she will visit her sister, Miss Katherine Green, who is in the government employ there.

Mrs. A. W. Seright was hostess of the La Canada Thursday Club this week at her home on Commonwealth avenue on which occasion the election of officers was held resulting in the following list for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. C. F. Pate; vice-president, Mrs. W. F. Holden; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. I. F. Nyby; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Wesley Selleck. A paper on California Laws for Women, read by Mrs. J. W. Stultz, was an interesting feature of the program. Announcement was made of novel programs which are being planned for the coming year. The meeting then adjourned for a very successful social hour. CURSE YE, MEROZ' lieved more in pink teas, resolutions, dress parade, tin armies and navies than in doing something worth while for God and country. They were selfish, supine, unpatriotic and treasonable. They were not worth a firing squad to wipe them off the earth. One woman with red blood in her veins, patriotic fervor in her heart, fire in her eye and a little hammer in her hand, like Luther of old, did more in five minutes for God's cause and the honor of her country than that City of Meroz did from the time of the laying of her first cornerstone. The name of Jael will ever be celebrated in Jewish song and story for the glorious work she did with her hammer and tent pin when she pinned Sisera to the ground, the great leader of the murderous horde that ravaged the country, destroyed Israel's crops, carried off her women and girls, and made destruction general all along. The people of Meroz refused to come to the help of their country. The Meroz-type of people are not all dead. Nearly every church is pestered with those who will do nothing except kick, boss, find fault, object and criticize the people who are modestly doing the Lord's work and always on the job.

"1. The kind of people the church needs today are such who will not be content to sit under the shadow of the curse of cowardice, like the people of Meroz. The Lord made a very optimistic declaration when He said, 'The gates of Hell shall not prevail against the church.' But that does not mean He will make the church a success whether every member does his work or not. God depends upon each one to do his duty. And God's work can succeed only so fast as feelings of duty weigh heavily on human hearts and efforts are made to be up and doing. The saints of God today are leading the church on to victory. The biggest moral and religious cowards in this country are those who are willing to enjoy all the blessings and rights of the church then allow a few of our citizens to run the church and pay the bills, while they spend their time, talents and cash in clubs, orders and sports."

"2. The people the church needs today are those who see to it that none of the energy of the church is wasted. War is always a most tremendous waster of time, money, material, talent, industry and man-power. As Americans during the last 15 months we have learned what tremendous wasters we have been, in the way we have been compelled to save. Conservation has been the slogan in morals and religion. Christian forces today have caught a larger, broader, higher vision of duty. The time was when differing communions in the same locality would knife, and call each other hard names, but not so today, thank God. But today unionism in society, in commerce, religion, is on every hand. A new dispensation has come. Numerous bodies of Christendom that have stood apart for generations are now coming together into one.

"3. The kind of people the church needs as its members will not be satisfied with conquering America for Christ, but they will conquer the whole world for Him.

"The heart and soul of the Gospel is missionary. That Christian or church not of a missionary spirit is dead. It is Christian only in name. Missionary meetings are held today as never before, everywhere. We ought to reason this way, as sane men, with good horse sense, that if our American commerce of all kinds is good for China, Japan and India and other heathen lands, our American Christianity, yea, Christ's Christianity, should be of still greater value. For it is the gospel more than American goods those countries are so badly in need of.

"The kind of people the church needs today are those who will place first things first, where they belong. That kind of people will not give second place to the Lord of Glory. Their sacrifices to Him will not consist of driftwood or kelp. They will not wait until they get on the 'retired' list before doing something for the Master. What they have left they will not 'donate' to Him and His cause. The best American citizens do not steal the hours of God's day for their own pleasure, sport, picnics, and the like, and leave the faithful few to attend preaching. The best men and women of this country uphold the church both by personal example and precept. They honor God and His holy day by being in their pews in the house of God. God hasten the day when such people dominate our community."
